

AccuConference Marketing Internship 2011

We are currently hiring a marketing intern to work side by side with our sales and marketing team.

This is not your typical internship – there will not be endless coffee runs or picking up lunch for the office. This is a true internship where you can get down and dirty to introduce yourself to the ins and outs of marketing in a business world. You must live in the Dallas/Fort Worth, TX area as this internship will require you to be in office.

AccuConference is a worldwide audio, web, and video conferencing provider. We offer user friendly products that help corporations, governments, and individuals collaborate on any given project. Our communications software offers in-depth interfaces that are accessible from anywhere. Our communications tools are reliable and easy to use.

Projects You Will Work On:

- Link Building.
- Participate in weekly SEO strategy meetings.
- Working with the other team members to create content for various projects.
- Brainstorming new and innovative approaches to spreading our brand.

What's In It for You?

- Exposure to ever changing search engine algorithms.
- Learn the fundamental basics about search marketing. (Keywords, links, content development).
- Mentorship by the entire marketing team.
- A true internship that will give you an introduction to the world of online marketing.
